
Juilliard
Fall Festival

It all starts here

SEPTEMBER 12–20, 2025

25/26

Eight days of boundary-pushing performances that launch New York's performing arts season

Welcome to Juilliard's Second Annual Fall Festival!

What a way to begin a year, throwing open the doors to music, dance, and drama in all their blazing variety. Our festival inaugurates the performance season not just as a series of events but as a declaration of purpose.

What you'll experience is the heartbeat of Juilliard: a foundation of tradition that sparks a spirit of innovation. One moment a classic, centuries old and burning bright; the next, something brand new, pulsing with today's energy. It's all connected. The through line is the aspiration, the sheer necessity of making art, and of the education that drives it all forward with reverence and curiosity.

And so we begin with an opening night that points us toward the future, and finish with a closing night that reminds us where we've come from. In that context, Juilliard is not just a school and not just a stage. It is a promise carried by students from all over the globe and fulfilled in the hearts of every audience member who joins them.

As we launch this new season, we also look ahead to a future where every gifted young artist can create, learn, and thrive without financial barriers. Our campaign to make Juilliard ever more tuition-free is making that future a reality. Thank you for being part of this journey and for sharing in the promise of what's to come. Discover how we're empowering the next generation of artists, and join us at juilliard.edu/campaign.

Onward!

Welcome Back to The New Series!

Welcome to the fourth season of The New Series, which explores the music of our time through the lens of interdisciplinary collaboration. Tonight, A Piano Story is co-curated with Creative Enterprise Fellow Derek Wang, pianist, fellow Juilliard alum, and committed polymath. Derek is deeply invested in presenting dynamic programming and meaningful interdisciplinary experiences, and he shares his perspective below.

A Piano Story features Steinway's hybrid analogue/digital Spirio piano, which Steinway has kindly provided. When I first encountered the instrument years ago, my immediate thought was "how can we compose with this technology?" We answer that question with five "micro-commissions" for piano four-hands—for composer and their "ghost"—plus a journey through the ages in an improvisation on the ancient tune La Folia.

We are grateful to have you here! Please look out for more New Series concerts this season.

Yours in music,

David Ludwig

Welcome Back to The New Series! (Continued)

Let's forget, for a moment, the effects of acculturation, and be confronted as though for the first time by this magic box, the piano, as purely as when we were children. Tonight's program tells a story that begins from playful discovery. As we grow with the instrument, it becomes both a laboratory of creativity and an archive of cultural memory, as our own play joins the conversation between players across generations. Through it all, the piano remains the hearth, a place both for gathering with others and for returning inward to ourselves.

We'll also touch on a cognitive tension of our time: As technologies grow more capable of synthesizing human expression, we look more carefully for traces of real human presence behind words, images, or sounds—even as our confidence wavers that such traces could really resist replication. Indeed, Steinway's Spirio system demonstrates that the human nuances of great pianism are essentially reducible to granular data. Yet we listen only more keenly for that spark of consciousness behind the key-presses.

"One cannot adequately praise the genius who presided over the design of the piano keyboard, so well adapted to the shape of the hand," wrote Frédéric Chopin as he sketched out his method of the piano. Tonight, we too marvel at this brilliant interface, the keyboard, through which the cosmos of vibrating sound becomes graspable with heart on sleeve, keys in hand.

Flow My Tears
Music: John Dowland
Text: Anonymous

Flow, my tears, fall from your springs!
Exiled for ever, let me mourn;
Where night's black bird her sad infamy sings,
There let me live forlorn.

Down vain lights, shine you no more!
No nights are dark enough for those
That in despair their lost fortunes deplore.
Light doth but shame disclose.

Never may my woes be relieved,
Since pity is fled;
And tears and sighs and groans my weary days
Of all joys have deprived.

From the highest spire of contentment
My fortune is thrown;
And fear and grief and pain for my deserts
Are my hopes, since hope is gone.

Hark! you shadows that in darkness dwell,
Learn to contemn light.
Happy, happy they that in hell
Feel not the world's despite.

An mein Klavier

Music: Franz Schubert
Text: Christian Schubart

Sanftes Klavier,
Welche Entzückungen schaffest du mir,
Sanftes Klavier!
Wenn sich die Schönen
Tändelnd verwöhnen,
Weih' ich mich dir,
Liebes Klavier!

Bin ich allein,
Hauch' ich dir meine Empfindungen ein,
Himmlisch und rein.
Unschuld im Spiele,
Tugendgefühle,
Sprechen aus dir,
Trautes Klavier!

Sing' ich dazu,
Goldener Flügel, welch' himmlische Ruh'
Lispelst mir du!
Tränen der Freude
Netzen die Saite!
Silberner Klang
Trägt den Gesang.

Sanftes Klavier!
Welche Entzückungen schaffest du mir,
Goldnes Klavier!
Wenn mich im Leben
Sorgen umschweben,
Töne du mir,
Trautes Klavier!

To My Piano

Translation: Richard Wigmore

Gentle piano,
what delights you bring me,
gentle piano!
While the spoilt beauties
dally,
I devote myself to you,
dear piano!

When I am alone
I whisper my feelings to you,
pure and celestial.
As I play, innocence and virtuous sentiments speak from you,
beloved piano!

When I sing with you,
golden keyboard, what heavenly peace
you whisper to me!
Tears of joy
fall upon the strings.
Silvery tone
supports the song.

Gentle piano,
what delights you awaken within me,
golden piano!
When in this life
cares beset me,
sing to me,
beloved piano!

That Old Piano Roll
Music and Text: Stephen Sondheim

Listen to that old piano roll play
When I hear that old piano roll play
I just gotta dance
And what I mean is dance with you

Doesn't matter what I'm doin' or where—
When that ragtime rhythm tickles the air
I go in a trance
I only wanna dance
With you

Baby, baby
Come on along
Come on and dance
And maybe
By the time you get a load o'
That super-syncopated coda

You'll say, "I think that old piano roll's nice"
Then we'll play that old piano roll twice
Come on, take a chance—
I only wanna dance
With you

There's a honky-tonk down the street
Nothin' more than a dive
They got somethin', though, can't be beat
Somethin' really alive
They got this player piano
It's nothin' but a piano
Yeah-bo, but what a piano—
The only tune that it has is jazz!
It's just a mini-piano
A tiny, tinny piano
But folks from every city, town and ghetto
Adore that ad lib allegretto

Just listen to that old piano roll play!
I could hear that old piano all day
I just wanna dance
And what I mean is dance
With you

Makes no difference, sunny weather or rain
When that ragtime rhythm reaches my brain
I know in advance
I'm gonna wanna dance
With you

Baby, baby
Kick out the blues
Kick off your shoes
And maybe
That sympathetic syncopation'll
Prove to be so inspirational

We won't let that old piano roll stop
We'll keep droppin' nickels in till we drop
I don't want romance
I only wanna dance
With—
I just wanna–
I just gotta–
I just wanna—
I just gotta–
I just wanna—
Dance!

I Love a Piano
Music and Text: Irving Berlin

As a child I went wild when a band played
How I ran to the man when his hand swayed
Clarinets were my pets, and a slide trombone I thought was simply divine

But today when they play, I could hiss them
Every bar is a jar to my system
But there's one musical instrument that I call mine:

I love a piano, I love a piano
I love to hear somebody play
Upon a piano, a grand piano
It simply carries me away

I know a fine way to treat a Steinway
I love to run my fingers o'er the keys, the ivories

And with the pedal I love to meddle
When Paderewski comes this way
I'm so delighted if I'm invited
To hear that long haired genius play

So you can keep your fiddle and your bow
Give me a P I A N O, oh, oh
I love to stop right beside an upright
Or a high toned Baby Grand.

David Serkin Ludwig

David Serkin Ludwig (Graduate Diploma '02, composition) has enjoyed a career of collaboration with many of today's leading musicians, filmmakers, and writers. In 2023, he received the award in music from the American Academy of Arts and Letters. In 2022, he was awarded the Stoeger Prize from the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, the largest chamber music award of its kind. He received the 2018 Pew Center for the Arts and Heritage Fellowship, Independence Foundation Fellowship (two-time recipient), the Theodore Presser Career Grant, and A. I. DuPont Award. In 2012, NPR named Ludwig to its list of Top 100 Composers Under 40. The following year, his choral work The New Colossus opened the private prayer service for President Obama's second inauguration. He holds positions and residencies with nearly two dozen orchestras and music festivals in the U.S. and abroad, and he was named a Steinway Artist in 2021. Before beginning his administrative position at Juilliard, Ludwig was at the Curtis Institute of Music, where he served as dean of artistic programs, chair of composition studies, director of Ensemble 20/21, and artistic director of Curtis Summerfest. In addition to Juilliard and Curtis, he also holds degrees and certificates from Oberlin Conservatory, and Manhattan School of Music as well as a PhD from the University of Pennsylvania. Ludwig also studied at the University of Vienna, and he taught at Cheyney University of Pennsylvania while attending Juilliard. Ludwig has received commissions and notable performances from artists and ensembles including the Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Minnesota, and National symphony orchestras as well as Jonathan Biss, Jeremy Denk, Jennifer Koh, Jaime Laredo, David Shifrin, Eighth Blackbird, Imani Winds, the Dover Quartet, and the PRISM Saxophone Quartet. In addition to his position as dean and director of the Music Division, Ludwig also serves on the Juilliard faculty and is the artistic director of its collaborative contemporary music project The New Series. He lives in New York City with his wife, violinist Bella Hristova, and their four beloved cats.

Derek Wang

Derek Wang (Pre-College ’16; BM ’20, MM ’22, piano) moves across performance, collaboration, curation, and public engagement with rigor and relish. Wang first came to international attention with his interpretations of Liszt, winning second prize at the 12th International Liszt Competition (Liszt Utrecht) in 2022 and first prize at the inaugural New York Liszt Competition in 2021, which presented his debut in Weill Recital Hall with an all-Liszt program. Last year, Wang began his role as Creative Enterprise Fellow at Juilliard, where he leads interdisciplinary projects that have included sesquicentennial celebrations of composer Charles Ives and poet Rainer Maria Rilke, an ecological work with Ethan Luk entitled Passages, an all-Philip Glass marathon concert on the composer’s 88th birthday, and, for Juilliard’s Fall Festival, A Place for Us: Opening Day at Juilliard Station. A proponent of the music of our time, Wang held a three-summer-long fellowship position as pianist of the Aspen Contemporary Ensemble at the Aspen Music Festival under conductors Donald Crockett and Timothy Weiss, performing more than 50 works of the 20th and 21st centuries. In chamber music, he is a recital partner to violinist Robert McDuffie, with regular appearances in Aspen and at the Rome Chamber Music Festival in Italy. Wang’s work across disciplines also includes collaborations with choreographers Robert Battle, Lauren Lovette, and Tiler Peck at the Vail Dance Festival, with Oscar-winning animator Hugh Welchman in live-to-film concerts of Magic Piano and the Chopin Shorts, and with poet-activist Emtithal Mahmoud for the opening session of the 2025 Aspen Ideas Festival. While studying at Juilliard, Wang was the recipient of a Kovner Fellowship and the Joseph W. Polisi Prize for exemplifying the values of the artist as citizen. In 2024, he received an Artist Diploma from the Yale School of Music. His principal teachers have included Stephen Hough, Yoheved Kaplinsky, Matti Raekallio, Boris Slutsky, and Arie Vardi.

NEW YORK STATE OF OPPORTUNITY. Council on the Arts

The Juilliard Preparatory Division is made possible, in part, by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature.

Major funding for establishing Paul Recital Hall and for continuing access to its series of public programs have been granted by the Bay Foundation and the Josephine Bay Paul and C. Michael Paul Foundation in memory of Josephine Bay Paul.

Juilliard's Ellen and James S. Marcus Institute for Vocal Arts was established in 2010 by the generous support of Ellen and James S. Marcus.

Juilliard gratefully acknowledges the Talented Students in the Arts Initiative, a collaboration of the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and the Surdna Foundation, for its generous support of Juilliard Jazz.

Juilliard's full-scholarship Historical Performance program was established and endowed in 2008 by the generous support of Bruce and Suzie Kovner.

Juilliard Historical Performance is grateful for endowment support from the Sidney J. Weinberg Foundation.

Additional support was provided in part by the Muriel Gluck Production Fund.

Use of the DR2 Theatre is made possible through the generous support of Daryl Roth.

To the many members of the Juilliard community who worked to bring the Fall Festival to life—thank you!
